About the opportunity

We are seeking an experienced and innovative Senior Adviser to join our Capacity Building team at WGEA. The Agency is entering an exciting new chapter of growth as we seek to deepen the impact and benefits of our Agency data and subject matter expertise to accelerate the rate of change on gender equality in the workplace.

The team

This role sits within the Capacity Building team of WGEA – a multidisciplinary team of subject matter experts, with skills and experience across leadership, learning, change management, research and public policy and service. We develop and implement the programs and practices that expand and strengthen leadership capability, workplace systems, policy and processes that contribute to the delivering gender equal outcomes and experiences across the employee lifecycle.

Our team provide support and guidance to employers through direct intervention projects, change management services and learning and advisory programs and services. We

- Devise and evaluate solutions, interventions and change programs that accelerate the rate of change in organisations
- Develop and deliver live learning events such as masterclasses, workshops, and eLearning modules.
- Provide advice and planning support to employers via our onsite clinics and virtual drop-in session for action planning and capacity assessments.
- Act as a source of support and advice for the Agency executive and broader WGEA team and colleagues.

About our Agency

The Workplace Gender Equality Agency (WGEA/Agency) is the Australian Government's key agency charged with promoting and improving gender equality in Australian workplaces, through the provision of advice and assistance to employers and the assessment and measurement of workplace gender data.

WGEA is growing, reflecting our ambition to accelerate progress towards workplace gender equality. We are a small unique agency with a big agenda. Read more about the recent WGEA reforms on our website

At WGEA you will be part of a team of high achievers who are passionate, friendly, and fun. We understand what working flexibly means. We pride ourselves on being a respectful, diverse, and inclusive community. We encourage and welcome applications from people of all genders, Indigenous Australians, people with disability, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds and mature-age people.

What our Agency looks for

- people who are committed to supporting and delivering change in Australian workplaces (our purpose).
- flexible and adaptable people to meet immediate needs and future challenges.
- team oriented people who have energy and are determined to succeed.
- people who are open, service orientated, accountable, of high integrity, and can operate based on impartial evidence (our Values).

What we offer

We value each team members contribution and offer:

- a culture that is committed to our purpose and getting results, recognises achievements, and values innovation.
- opportunities for team members to work on agency wide projects and encouraging everyone to be adaptable and collaborative.
- flexible working options that empower you to model a working day and/or environment that brings out the best outcomes from you. Whether that is working from our modern offices in Sydney CBD or from home each team members working day can be different
- attractive salaries and superannuation (15.4%) as well as a range of other benefits.
- a culture and leadership team that believe in diversity and inclusion.

Position title:	Senior Advisor – Capacity Building
APS Level:	APS 6
Position:	Fulltime or part-time, ongoing or non-ongoing (flexible working arrangements available)

The role

This position reports to the Capacity Building Manager and will be required to work collaboratively across Capacity Building team projects, including our work directly with employers.

Key duties and responsibilities include:

- Knowledge - you draw on your subject matter expertise to analyse, develop and guide employers to identify opportunities to improve gender equality outcomes and implement the most effective strategies to address them.
- Intervention – you will develop, implement and monitor direct practice projects and advisory services with Australian businesses.
- Research and Evaluation – you will research, plan and synthesise information relevant to our work and our stakeholder engagement programs, drawing on your ability to distil insights into digestible, and compelling reports, briefs and policy papers.
- Coordination and Development – you will imbue your knowledge and thought leadership into our live learning events and micro-learning modules, facilitating sessions, creating content and running specialist events, focus groups and round tables that build capability.
- Other duties as required in line with APS 6 capabilities.

Key capabilities and experience for success in this role include:

- Previous experience and demonstrated success in a similar role with a consulting and/or advisory capacity.
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent in gender equality, diversity and inclusion, HR or a related field or discipline that connects with the Capacity Building remit.
- High level verbal and written communication skills including previous experience in group facilitation or training and meeting management skills.
- Research and evaluation experience, including working knowledge of quantitative and qualitative data and analysis methods.
- Highly effective stakeholder engagement and relationship building skills with exposure to Executive and Board.
- Well-developed organisational and time management skills, including the ability to deliver time-critical work under direction, prioritise tasks, make decisions and manage ambiguity.
- The ability to hold or obtain Baseline Security Clearance (this includes being an Australian Citizen).

Desirable capabilities and/or experience: (These capabilities and/or are experience will be favourably viewed but are not a requirement)

- Previous management or project team leadership experience.

How to prepare your application

Eligibility to apply

To be eligible for this position applicants are required to be an Australian citizen and undertake a National Criminal Records Check upon engagement to determine suitability for employment.

Preparing your application

You should include the following information in your application:

1. A brief resume, outlining the employment experience and achievements relevant to the role (Max. 2 Pages).
2. A letter of application (Max. 1 page) - highlighting your interest and suitability for the role and confirming your Australian citizenship, along with your ability to successfully clear a National Criminal Records Check upon engagement.

Diversity

The Agency values the contributions of people with different backgrounds, experiences and perspectives. You can tell us in your application, or when called in for interview, if you need any adjustments to help you participate equally in the selection process.

Questions about the position

The contact officer is available to answer any questions you have about the position. Their contact details are on page one of this application package.

Lodging your application

Your application should be emailed to recruitment@wgea.gov.au.

Late applications

Late applications will not be accepted unless exceptional circumstances exist.

Selection Panel

A selection panel (usually three people) will be formed to consider all applications and develop a shortlist of applicants for further assessment via a video interview that includes a short practical exercise reflective of the kind of work you will be expected to undertake.

Availability for interview

We make hiring decisions based on your experience, skills and passion, as well as how you can enhance WGEA and our culture. Please note that interviews are conducted virtually. When you apply, please tell us the pronouns you use and any reasonable adjustments you may need during the interview process.

If you are shortlisted for an interview, you can expect at least two days' notice. If you are not short-listed for interview, you will be notified in writing.
